Nahunta Friends Meeting is accepting applications for the Senior Pastor position at our church.

Nahunta Friends is a rural church in northwestern Wayne County, North Carolina. We are an independent evangelical, conservative Quaker church. You can learn more about who we are on our church's website (nahuntafriends.org). The job description can also be found on the church website.

Nahunta Friends has many members, including young adults, students, families with children, empty nesters, and seasoned adults. Some families have been attending Nahunta Friends for generations. We have active Sunday School classes, Bible studies, and youth groups. Nahunta Friends is very active in local outreach and foreign missions. Members are encouraged to learn about God, grow in their relationship with Christ, and serve others in love.

We seek to bring the unchurched to Christ, grow current members in their faith, and strengthen all to fulfill the call of Christ in our lives. We aim to evangelize to the lost while meeting our community's physical, emotional, and spiritual needs.
